

MND Scotland National Support Advisor Job Pack

MND Scotland - About Us

About MND Scotland

MND Scotland is the only charity in Scotland dedicated to supporting people with MND, their families, and friends.

Since being founded over forty years ago, MND Scotland has provided practical, financial, and emotional support to anyone affected by MND whilst also funding essential research into finding effective treatments and a cure.

MND Scotland is funded entirely by donations and grants. The charity's patron is Her Royal Highness, the Princess Royal.

National Support Advisor

Hours:	Full time (35 hours per week)
Salary:	Grade 5 - £29,030.01 gross per annum
Contract:	Fixed term contract for 12 months (with potential for extension subject to project review)
Location:	Home based, with a proportion of the working week in the central Glasgow office
Directorate:	Support Development
Reports To:	Support Development Lead - Practical Support Lead

Role Purpose

MND Scotland is privileged to be the only charity in Scotland dedicated to supporting people affected by MND. For over 40 years, the charity has provided practical, financial and emotional support to people with MND, their family and their friends, whilst also funding ground-breaking research into the discovery of effective treatments and a cure.

You will manage a national caseload, primarily by phone and email, with occasional inperson contact where appropriate. Your work will empower families to spend precious time making memories, rather than worrying about practical or financial challenges.

This is a developing role in a growing service, and you'll also contribute to shaping systems, resources, and policies that ensure consistent, high-quality support.

Everything we do is to enable people with MND to spend their precious time building special memories.

Together we will make time count.

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities

- Provide in-depth, person-centred information and support on issues such as health and social care, disability benefits, employment, and daily living needs
- Support individuals and families to identify entitlements and access appropriate services
- Submit benefit applications and liaise with relevant bodies (e.g., DWP, Social Security Scotland) to ensure timely access to financial support
- Respond to client enquiries sensitively and professionally via phone, email, or face-to-face, using a clear, jargon-free approach
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date case records using internal online systems

- Identify and respond to safeguarding and wellbeing concerns in line with organisational policies
- Collaborate with NHS professionals, local authorities, and external partners to provide coordinated and holistic support
- Contribute to service development, including the creation of internal guidance, resources, and policy documentation
- Promote the service and maintain professional relationships that support referrals and wider service awareness
- Stay current with relevant legislation, sector developments, and organisational updates through continuing professional development

Essential Skills and Experience

- Experience in health, social care, or welfare rights (formal qualifications welcome but not required)
- Experience supporting people through complex systems and empowering them in their own care
- Knowledge of legislation relating to adult social care, disability benefits, and welfare systems
- Proven ability to manage a complex caseload and prioritise workload
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills, including active listening and clear telephone manner
- Digital competence, including experience with case management systems
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment
- Experience supporting vulnerable individuals, including those with life-limiting illnesses
- Commitment to equality, diversity, and inclusive practice

Desirable Skills and Experience

- Knowledge of Scottish legislation (e.g. Social Care (Self-directed Support) (Scotland) Act 2013, Equality Act 2010)
- Understanding of adult safeguarding and experience liaising with statutory services
- Familiarity with systems such as E-Tapestry
- Knowledge of the BASRiS process

Essential Competencies

- A strong commitment to MND Scotland's vision and values
- Compassionate, proactive, and solutions-focused
- High levels of personal awareness and professionalism
- Ability to empathise while maintaining clear boundaries
- Resilience and confidence to work under pressure
- Strong interpersonal skills and a 'can do' attitude

Personal Attributes

With high levels of personal awareness and a strong sense of personal boundaries, a National Support Advisor is a compassionate and proactive team player with a strong sense of personal accountability. They will bring a 'can do' attitude and a focus on positive outcomes for people with MND and their families.

Additional Relevant Criteria

- This is a hybrid role between home and MND Scotland's Glasgow office
- Some travel across Scotland may be required
- Occasional evening or weekend work may be necessary
- Due to the emotional demands of the role, external supervision is provided

This job description is current at the date of issue. As and when the work of MND Scotland develops or changes so the areas of responsibility may be subject to change, and the job description reviewed. Such changes would in the first instance be made in consultation with the post holder.

In line with our commitment to safeguarding, this role is subject to PVG check.
